More agility

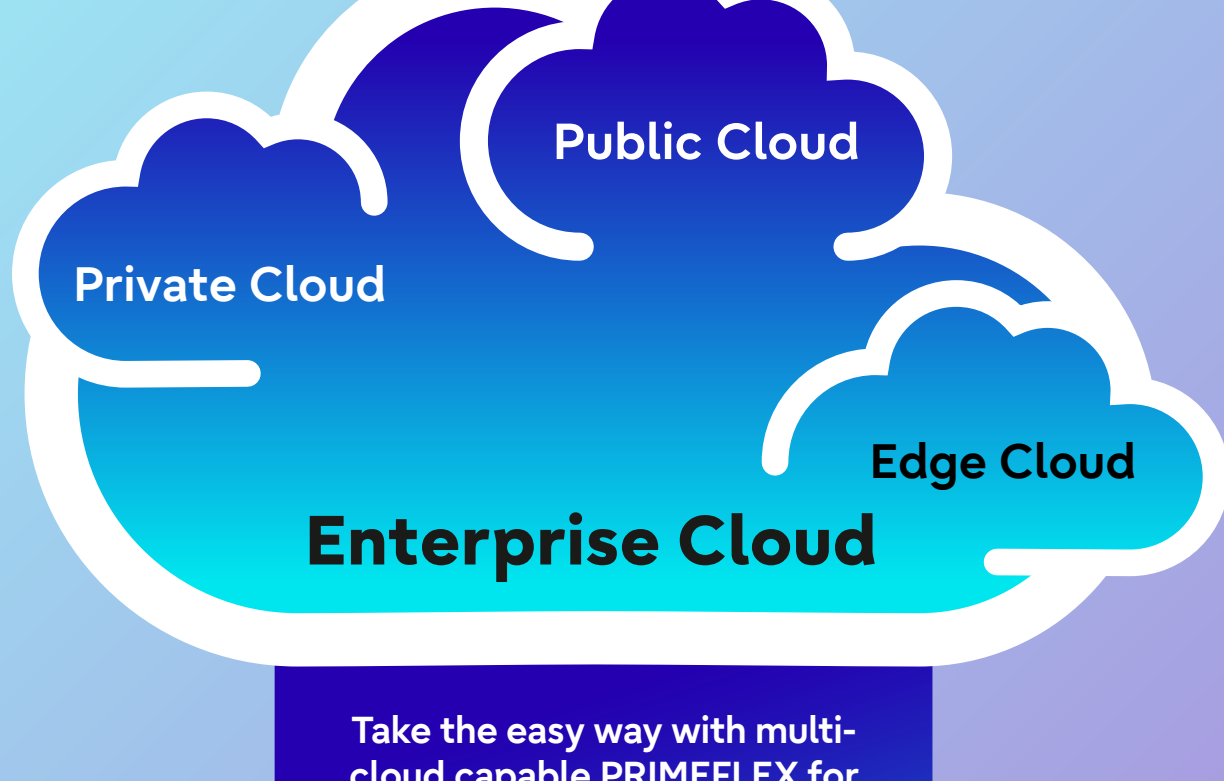

Deploy systems faster

What do organizations expect of infrastructure that spans multiple types of clouds?

Can a unified infrastructure approach really deliver?

Managing across different clouds can be costly and confusing...

Better to go with an enterprise cloud that spans them all

Take the easy way with multi-cloud capable PRIMEFLEX for Nutanix Enterprise Cloud:

- Ramp across private, public and edge clouds fast
- Reduce storage costs
- Simplify management
- Grow as you go

What is PRIMEFLEX for Nutanix Enterprise Cloud?

A multi-cloud, multi-hypervisor infrastructure with high performance, energy-efficient Fujitsu PRIMERGY standard x86 servers combined with software-defined compute, virtualization and storage technology with built-in data services for application orchestration, data protection, space efficiency and security.

Six reasons to invest in PRIMEFLEX for Nutanix Enterprise Cloud

- #1 Start FAST
Deploy cluster in under 15 minutes
- #2 Get brilliant performance
250,000+ IOPS per server
- #3 Mitigate risk
Built-in resiliency for multiple component failures – even in 2-node deployments
- #4 Increase capacity
Up to 4x greater storage efficiency
- #5 Manage easily
Single console monitoring with simple one-click management
- #6 Scale to size
Scale to an endless number of systems with unlimited storage

With PRIMEFLEX for Nutanix Enterprise Cloud, you can:

Reduce cost
All-in-one system eliminates cost of external storage environment: storage arrays, SAN switches, management tools and staff.

Increase storage efficiency
Set up a tiered storage architecture to keep hot data in a high-performance tier, and colder data in tiers with lower cost per gigabyte.

Speed up your applications
Deliver a high-performance, responsive virtual IT infrastructure that provides consistent IOPS with sub-millisecond response times.

"We value Fujitsu as a strong solution partner who provided us with professional and expert support in our migration to a hyper-converged system based on Nutanix software and PRIMERGY server technology."

Dietmar Hensch
Head of IT Services, Kramer & Crew

"With PRIMEFLEX for Nutanix Enterprise Cloud from Fujitsu, we have a completely integrated and future-proof hyper-converged infrastructure, which we can scale flexibly and administer easily."
